DENNY WEINBERG JOINS SALEM COMMUNICATIONS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

CAMARILLO, Calif.—October 27, 2005—Stuart Epperson, chairman of the Board of Directors, Salem Communications Corporation (Nasdaq:SALM), the leading radio broadcaster focused on Christian and family-themed programming, today announced that Denny Weinberg, CEO of ARCUS Enterprises, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of WellPoint, Inc., has been named to the Salem Board effective November 1, 2005.

Epperson commented, "With his outstanding record of success in a variety of industries, impressive financial, operating and business development background, and a passion for our business, Denny Weinberg brings invaluable experience to Salem."

Weinberg was one of the founding directors of WellPoint in the early 1990's, and is an 18-year veteran of WellPoint or its predecessor companies. During his tenure, he helped structure one of the most publicized financial turnarounds in the managed care industry, which resulted in the creation of WellPoint. Most recently as CEO of ARCUS, Weinberg has been responsible for creating and launching a long-term business diversification venture for WellPoint. Previously, he served as group president and/or founder for a number of WellPoint's key operating companies and divisions.

Weinberg moved to the West Coast in the mid 1980's as a principal with the consulting division of accounting firm Deloitte & Touche in Chicago, Ill. Before that, he was general manager for the CTX Products Division of Pet, Inc., a subsidiary of I.C. Industries in St. Louis, Mo. Weinberg is a general partner in FRW-I, LLC, a medical device developer and Skyview Development, LLC, a residential land development company, and is a limited partner in a half dozen other early-stage development projects.

Among his numerous civic, social and philanthropic activities, Weinberg is the founder of the Friends of Ventura County Youth, chair and co-founder of Life Skills for American Families, and is vice chair of the Cornerstone Network Association. He is a board member of the Pepperdine Center for the Family and the National Coalition for the Protection of Children and Families, and serves as a board member and secretary for the CEO Forum, an independent Christian non-profit affinity organization of more than 100 large company CEOs.

A resident of Camarillo, Calif., Weinberg holds a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from the University of Missouri in Columbia, Mo.

Headquartered in Camarillo, Calif., Salem is the leading U.S. radio broadcaster focused on Christian and family-themed programming. Upon the close of all announced transactions, the company will own 105 radio stations, including 66 stations in 24 of the top 25 markets. In addition to its radio properties, Salem owns Salem Radio Network(R), which syndicates talk, news and music programming to approximately 1,900 affiliates; Salem Radio Representatives(TM), a national radio advertising sales force; Salem Web Network(TM), a leading Internet provider of Christian content and online streaming; and Salem Publishing(TM), a leading publisher of Christian-themed magazines. Additional information about Salem may be accessed at the company's website, www.salem.cc.
