Salem Communications Announces A Special Cash Dividend

CAMARILLO, Calif.—August 8, 2007-- Salem Communications Corporation (NASDAQ:SALM), a leading U.S. radio broadcaster, Internet content provider and magazine publisher targeting audiences interested in Christian and family-themed content and conservative values, today announced that its Board of Directors declared a special cash dividend of $0.42 per share on its Class A and Class B common stock to be paid on August 23, 2007 to shareholders of record at the close of business on August 20, 2007. The dividend payment will total approximately $10.0 million.

Edward G. Atsinger III, chief executive officer, commented, "Last year we paid a special dividend of $15 million, our first ever as a public company. This year, despite challenges facing the broadcast sector, Salem Communications continues to generate free cash flow and bring incremental value to our shareholders. After considering available options, our board of directors determined that this new special dividend of approximately $10 million was the best way to allow our shareholders to benefit from this growth."

In addition to its radio properties, Salem Communications owns Salem Radio Network[®], which syndicates talk, news and music programming to approximately 2,000 affiliates; Salem Radio Representatives[™], a national radio advertising sales force; Salem Web Network[™], an Internet provider of Christian content and online streaming; and Salem Publishing[™], a publisher of Christian-themed magazines. Upon the close of all announced transactions, the company will own 97 radio stations, including 61 stations in 23 of the top 25 markets. Additional information about Salem may be accessed at the company's website, www.salem.cc.
